CAPE WICKHAM

The recurring theme from among those who have played the course is, "Some of the most spectacular golfing scenery anywhere in the world". The 18th hole, a par-4, requires a drive across the cove and has been described by one Golf Digest writer as having "The most glorious natural setting of any finishing hole in Australia".

OCEAN DUNES GOLF COURSE KING ISLAND

A true test of the golfer. Depending on prevailing winds it will test not only your golfing skills 'to the max' as it were, it will also test your stamina, your determination and your internal fortitude to an extent that few other golf courses do.
